Last Rites Monday For Mrs. Vera Bentley

Last rites for Mrs. Vera Grace Bentley will be Monday, May 27, at 11 a.m. at the Hintz Funeral Home. The Rev. Fidelis J. Kaufmann of Sacred Heart church will officiate and burial will be in the Fairbank cemetery.

Mrs. Bentley 63, who lived at Hazleton, died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Mankato, Minn. She and her husband, Carl Bentley, who survives, were on a fishing trip when she became ill.

The body will be at the Hintz funeral home after 2 p.m. Saturday.

Other survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Joan Volker, Green Bay, Wis. and Karen, Mrs. Gerald Kleiman and Denise, Mrs. Aaron Damon, both of Oelwein, and a son, Mark Bentley, Hazleton. A brother, Melvin Mersch, Fairbank, and a sister, Mrs. Hazel Ebertsch, West Union, ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren also survive.

SUMMER BRIEFS

Mrs. Andy Nicklaus Sr. and Linda were Sunday dinner guests with Mrs. Ina Bonorden at Tripoli.

WU Safety Lane

Check, Saturday

WEST UNION (Special) — The West Union Jaycees will conduct a Safety Lane check Saturday, May 25, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. north of the County Court House in front of the North High School.

The West Union Police department and the Iowa Highway Patrol will assist. Jaycee Eltes will lend some help, also.

Steven Drewes is chairman of the event.

Good Neighbor

Deed, Randalia

RANDALIA (Special) — A good neighbor deed was done Thursday for Robert Hanchett when they arrived to plant his corn and beans.

Helping were Ralph and Everett Sinnott, Richard and David Buhman, Harold Ashby, Deane Davis and Beryl Hall.

Hanchett had been hospitalized at Allen Hospital in Waterloo a few days for medical care, but had returned home Tuesday.

City Briefs

—Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fox, who lost their home at 512 2nd Ave. N.E. in the May 15 tornado, are living in an apartment over Hartig Drug.

Alex Ricchio is off the critical list at Allen Memorial hospital, Waterloo, where he has been a patient since having suffered a heart attack May 15. He is in room 347, third floor, and would like to hear from friends.

Funeral Tuesday

At Sacred Heart

For Michael Kusack

A longtime Oelwein resident, Michael Kusack, 86, died at Oelwein Mercy hospital this morning (Saturday, May 25).

His body will be at the Hintz Funeral Home after 7 p.m. Saturday where the parish rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Monday, May 27. Funeral services will be at Sacred Heart church, Tuesday, May 28, with the Rev. F. J. Kaufmann officiating and burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mr. Kusack, a retired Chicago Great Western Railway machinist, was born in Poland and had lived in Oelwein the past 60 years.

Survivors include two daughters, Amelia, Mrs. Cecil Larson, with whom he had made his home at 122 7th St. S.E. and Nellie, Mrs. Raymond Harford and a son, William, all of Oelwein. A brother, Nick Kusack, Lockport, Ill., four grandchildren, six great grandchildren and three nieces also survive.
